

Hearing Loss, Hearing Aids, No Problem!

Including Students who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing in General Education Classrooms

The goal of this workshop is to prepare general education teachers and staff to understand the impact of hearing loss on the acquisition of language and learning. We will discuss effective classroom strategies, accommodations, assistive technology and interpreter use.

Participants will:

- Become familiar with the continuum of services for students who are deaf or hard of hearing
- Establish knowledge of communication options
- Develop a basic understanding of types and degrees of hearing loss
- Become familiar with hearing aids, cochlear implants, bone anchored devices, and classroom assistive technology
- Understand the impact of hearing loss on speech, language and auditory skills
- Understand the relationship among teachers, interpreters and students
- Identify classroom strategies and accommodations appropriate for students with hearing loss
